OTHER:

A reminder to students and staff to purchase your Pacer Wear from the online store. For information on products and merchandise, visit the online store on our DSS school website.

Attention grade 10, 11 and 12 students: DSS is hosting a Post-Secondary Information Evening on Tuesday, October 8th from 6:30 - 8:45. 16 Post-Secondary Schools will be in attendance to present their programs and answer questions. Don't miss out!!

Attention students - are you looking for part time work? If so, Dairy Queen is hiring. You must be at least 14 years old to apply. Bring your resume to the store.

On October 16 and 17th DSS students will have a chance to participate in the Student Vote! A mock polling station will be set up in the library and all students will get to vote for a candidate running in the current federal election. Please see the information posters in the library to find out more about the vote.

The Student Vote is also looking for volunteers to help at the polling station. Please see or email Ms. McMillan if you would like to volunteer.

Any Grade 11s interested in being a Big Buddy, please sign up in the office.

Math peer tutoring program starting Wednesday morning at 8:30 in room 1624. This is open to all grade 8 - 10 students.
