CAREER ARTICLES

IN A SHIFTING WORLD OF WORK, HOW CAN PARENTS SUPPORT THEIR TEENS' CAREER EXPLORATION?

With technology rapidly changing and uncertainty about what the future holds, it can feel even more challenging for parents to talk to teens about their future. Holistic Narrative Career Practitioner Conny Lee shares ideas for parents to help youth explore – and then make their own decisions. CLICK HERE

The S.W.E.A.T model enables students to visualize their strengths, weaknesses, experiences, accomplishments and targets, supporting their career competency development. CLICK HERE

“WILL THIS DEGREE LEAD TO A JOB”? IS THE WRONG QUESTION!

Students often begin a university course with a specific career path in mind, only to discover new interests that lead them in unexpected directions. (via theconversation) CLICK HERE

Youth

employABILITY Program CONNECTING YOUTH AND WORK

A FREE employment program for youth aged 15 to 30 that provides skills, training, and supports to land a job in the local labour market.

Participants are paid while attending virtual and in person workshops, and during their participation in a quality employment opportunity (work placement) with a local employer!

WHAT DO WE OFFER

- The Youth employABILITY Program is an 8-week program, combining 4 weeks of $PAID workshops and training with up to 4 weeks of $PAID work experience with one of our local employer partners
- Virtual and in-person workshops including: interview skills, resume & cover letter preparation and a variety of topics to help you find and keep a job
- Short-term certificate training to get noticed by employers and improve your employability
- Ongoing one-on-one support from our youth employment services team to support you in achieving your employment goals
- $$$ Completion bonus available $$$

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

- Ages of 15-30 (inclusive)
- Canadian citizen, permanent resident or protected person status
- Eager to gain new skills, acquire work experience and land a job!
- In need of support and assistance to develop employment readiness and overcome various barriers to employment, including those with a disability or belonging to a marginalized and racial-ethnic group
- The Youth employABILITY Program is NOT suited to youth taking a break from school and who will be returning back to school full-time upon completion of the program
